

LISTEN · LEARN · LEAD
Antiracism in TYA Webinar Series

Join TYA/USA, in partnership with Arts In Color, in a national conversation on addressing the racism and oppression that impacts the entire TYA industry in personal, professional, and systemic ways.

Thursdays at 1:30pm ET · September 17–December 17, 2020

The 11-session webinar series we will explore a variety of issues and perspectives regarding the ways artists and organizations can begin to (or further) embed antiracist practice in Theatre for Young Audiences.

SESSION 1

September 17, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Laying the Groundwork:
Talking about Race and Racism in
Our Field & Our Communities (Part I)

SESSION 7

November 5, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Racism as a Public Health Emergency

SESSION 2

September 24, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Laying the Groundwork (Part II)

SESSION 8

November 19, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

The Activist Teaching Artist

SESSION 3

October 1, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Embedding Antiracism in Theatre Organizations Fieldwide

SESSION 9

December 3, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Honoring Native Stories and Acknowledging Indigenous Identities in TYA

SESSION 4

October 8, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Building an EDIJ Action Plan for Theatre Organizations

SESSION 10

December 10, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Decentering Whiteness in Touring & Presenting TYA
(Presented in association with IPAY)

SESSION 5

October 15, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Racism and the Need for Diversity in the Canon of Stories for Children

SESSION 11

December 17, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Next Steps: Reflection, Action, and Accountability

SESSION 6

October 22, 2020
1:30–2:45 PM ET

Antiracist Casting Practices

For more info and registration, visit tyausa.org/antiracism

Registrants gain access to attend sessions live, recordings of all of the sessions, and post-session resources for learning and action.